

Decisive

BOOK CLUB DISCUSSION GUIDE

01

When do you most feel indecisive in scrapbooking?

02

Is there a creative choice you regret?
Which "villain" was the cause?

03

Have you ever widened your options to make a better choice or chose AND over OR?

04

How can you better leverage others who have solved your problem?

05

Is it your natural tendency to "ooch" or to jump in?

06

How does short-term emotion impact your creative decisions?

07

Are there any decisions you've agonized over for a long time?

08

How can you better anticipate your experience in completing a project?

09

Is there a "tripwire" you can establish to identify when you're off track in scrapbooking?
