

They Left Us Everything

BOOK CLUB DISCUSSION GUIDE

01

Is there a quirk about your home or a family home that no one would know unless you told them?

02

Did Plum's mom remind you of anyone in your family?

03

Are you satisfied with the quantity of pictures of yourself in your photo library?

04

Have you ever tried to start a project that felt overwhelmingly daunting from an emotional perspective?

05

This book offered very strong description - is there a story you've wanted to tell that could benefit from this kind of detail?

06

What is one way you have found (or might try) to get out of the way when it comes to letting your own creativity flow?

07

What would your 'pocket litter' say about you? Do you include daily life memorabilia in your scrapbooking?

08

Do you approach your scrapbooking from the goal of storing memories or being able to retrieve them in the future?

09

What will you do to understand your family or better archive materials so your family better understands you?
